

REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT IN Arizona

REFUGEE POPULATION OF ARIZONA

The United States has been a leader in welcoming refugees who seek safety from persecution based on their race, religion, nationality, political opinion or membership in a particular social group. Following World War II, the U.S. began welcoming refugees and over time the system has evolved to have a strong infrastructure centered on public-private partnerships. Communities across the U.S. have recognized the important economic and social benefits of resettling refugees. Arizona residents have played a vital role in the resettlement program and refugees have positively contributed to communities in Arizona. In 2016, organizations and communities across Arizona welcomed 5% of refugees arriving in the U.S. Arizona welcomed 4,110 refugees, 60 unaccompanied refugee minors, and 330 unaccompanied children who were released to the care and custody of sponsors.

Where are most refugees in Arizona from?
D.R. of Congo
Somalia
Eritrea
Iraq
Burma
Afghanistan

SERVICES AVAILABLE TO REFUGEES IN ARIZONA

In addition to programming to support refugees when they first arrive to the United States, the federal government provides monetary aid through grants to the state, Voluntary Agencies, and other refugee aid organizations for community and short-term refugee support. The Arizona Immigrant and Refugee Services serves as the refugee resettlement office for the state. Primary program services include cash and medical assistance, access to English language classes, and vocational and employment assistance.

FEDERAL FY16 ORR FUNDING TO ARIZONA FOR REFUGEE PROGRAMS
Total	Cash & Medical Assistance	Refugee Social Services	State Targeted Assistance	School Impact	Targeted Assistance Discretionary	Elderly	Health Promotion	Cuban/Haitian	Ethnic Community Self-Help	Micro-Enterprise Development	Refugee Family Child Care Micro-enterprise	Services for Survivors of Torture
$11,818,961	$6,407,782	$2,574,095	$703,592	$558,900	$150,000	$97,200	$140,000	$192,396	$437,409	$170,087	$187,500	$200,000

Another service available to refugees in Arizona is the employment Matching Grant Services, administered by Voluntary Agencies in the state. An alternative to public cash assistance, private agencies match federal contributions and provide intensive case management services to help refugees get employed and become self-sufficient within 120 days of arrival.

REFUGEE SUCCESS STORY

"In the degree of welcome and receptivity we see, I would certainly put Arizona at the top."

- International Rescue Committee vice president Bob Carey in story written by Jason DeParle of the New York Times

Thirty years ago, Emmett Kamara, a Liberian refugee, was resettled in Phoenix, Arizona. Today, inspired by his own experiences, he is giving back to his community and mentoring Phoenix youth. While working with the same resettlement agencies that aided in his arrival, he noticed that many refugee families were led by single parents, working long days to provide for their families. Compelled to not only help these families assimilate but also lead youth of this community down a healthy and safe path, he formed the Desert Lone Star soccer team of Arizona. This team serves as an outlet for young men to learn from a successfully integrated and productive man who has life experiences that are similar to their own. Emmett gave these youth a sense of belonging and purpose, contributing to Arizona by advancing the fabric of our society: children.

LOCAL AFFILIATES AND OFFICES OF VOLUNTARY AGENCIES IN ARIZONA

- LIRS, Lutheran Social Services of the Southwest, Phoenix
- ECDC, Arizona Immigrant and Refugee Services, Phoenix
- EMM, Lutheran Social Services of the Southwest, Tucson
- IRC, International Rescue Committee, Tucson
- IRC, International Rescue Committee, Glendale
- USCCB, Catholic Charities Community Services, Phoenix
- USCCB, Catholic Social Services, Tucson
- USCCB, Remote Placement Arizona
- USCCB, Catholic Charities Community Services, Phoenix (URM)

In addition to these agencies, many ethnic community-based organizations (ECBOs) exist throughout the state to help various refugee communities integrate and succeed in their new homes. These organizations are run by refugees to aid in the resettlement of fellow refugees by providing a variety of direct services, increasing civic participation, and preserve the community's cultural identity and history.